

Work permit in Canada under the Francophone Mobility Program

Job Description #5 – Industrial Mechanics (NOC 72400)

Location: Ontario

Few Positions Available

Rate of Pay: $25 per hour

Hours: This is a full time, permanent role.

Demonstrated mechanical and electrical experience required

Job Duties and responsibilities:

Job description:

- Follows all safety rules, guidelines and uses appropriate PPE.
- Maintains excellent 5S conditions.
- Dis-assembles and assembles mechanical items such as conveyors, gears, blades etc to repair the items
- Performs preventive or corrective maintenance on manufacturing equipment such as raspers, granulators which all are moving mechanical items.
- Align, fit, or assemble component parts using hand & power tools.
- Maintains and repairs building equipment including air compressor system, water treatment system, lighting etc.
- Maintains inventory of spare parts.
- Attends daily Start of Shift and End of Shift meetings for proper handover of shifts.
- Participates, develops and improves all PM activities.
- Works with contractors as necessary to implement new equipment or modify existing equipment.
- Be available for shift work and overtime as required.
- Supports and develops process improvements and Kaizen activities.
- Demonstrates an understanding of FIO's Environmental Policy and participate in programs that enhance environmental performance. Identifies and communicates any potential non-conformances.
- Demonstrates an understanding of the EPRP (Emergency Preparedness Response Plan).

Must have good oral communication skills. Potential applicants should be fully bilingual, fluent in English and willing and able to take a French language test.